Eastern Mennonite High School is a five-year secondary school for day and dormitory students located in the heart of Virginia's Shenandoah Valley. It is the only Christian high school in Rockingham County. It is operated by Virginia Mennonite Conference through the Board of Trustees of Eastern Mennonite College.

The high school offers grades eight through twelve for students preparing for college, secretarial positions, and general vocations. Full accreditation has been extended by the Virginia State Department of Education and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Daily chapel and regular Bible classes are a part of the program designed to develop the spiritual life of students. More significantly, teachers live their Christian discipleship at all times before the students. Lessons are taught from the perspective of the truth as it is in Christ. The Student Co-operative Organization and other student organizations provide opportunities for growth "in favor with God and man."

Anyone desiring more information concerning Eastern Mennonite High School fill in the following and mail to Mr. John H. Krall, Director, Eastern Mennonite High School, Harrisonburg, Va. 22801.
