We grateful for your ongoing support and prayers on behalf of Touring Choir. Next year I will be taking a one-year leave and (along with my wife Sheri) going to serve in Sighisoara, Romania. More information is on our blog at RomanianNotes.wordpress.com. We invite you to join us in this ministry with your prayers and your financial support. Contributions can be made to vmmissions.org/romania. Thank you in advance for your support for Jared Stutzman as he directs the choirs next year.

Non nobis, Domine

Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to your name be the glory.

Rosephanye Powell

Exultate justí in Domino

Come, rejoice, sing praise to the Lord, our God; righteous are the ones who praise his name. On the harp and the lyre play joyous melodies, Sing ye psalms and proclaim through your music that ye serve the Lord. Sing to the Lord new songs of his praises, Praise the Lord with a loud shout, in a voice of exultation. For the Lord is just, and his word is truth, and all of his actions are worthy of our trust. For he loves what e'er is just and good. The earth is filled with his tender love and filled with his glory.

Thou art beautiful, O my love, sweet and comely as Jerusalem,

You Are There

You are there in the way the light catches me in my turning, and in the way the wind moves me in every step.
And in my resting....pausing...pondering,
in my quiet wondering stillness,
visit me with your restless peace, your laughter on the wind.

Waiting for the Dawn

Commissioned for the Eastern Mennonite HSTouring Choir
PRAY but one prayer for me 'twixt thy closed lips, Think but one thought of me up in the stars.
The summer night waneth, the morning light slips
Faint and gray 'twixt the leaves of the aspen, betwixt the cloud-bars,
That are patiently waiting there for the dawn: Patient and colourless, though Heaven's gold Waits to float through them along with the sun. Far out in the meadows, above the young corn,
The heavy elms wait, and restless and cold, The uneasy wind rises; the roses are dun;
Through the long twilight they pray for the dawn, Round the lone house in the midst of the corn.
Speak but one word to me over the corn, Over the tender, bow'd locks of the corn.
